to Director, Intelligence Division, WDGS,
dated 7 February 1947, same subject.

c. Memo from Director, Intelligence Division, ✓
WDGS, dated 20 March 1947, same subject.

1. The Central Intelligence Group will plan to assume responsibility for the intelligence functions of the German Military Documents Section and the Special Documents Section of the Intelligence Division, War Department General Staff, effective 31 May 1947.

2. The Industrial Card File Project now conducted by the Special Document Section will be continued under CIG supervision.

3. Plans are continuing for establishing means and procedures to assemble, maintain, and disseminate information on foreign industry as a part of the project for assembling centrally basic intelligence data.

4. An immediate effort will be made to provide individuals from CIG to understudy essential key positions. However, should unavoidable delays in procurement be experienced, it will be essential that the present key individuals be retained until replacements can be appropriately trained.

5. The Assistant Director for Operations, Central Intelligence Group, is designated as the representative of the Director of Central Intelligence to coordinate with your office in arranging the details of the transfer of the subject functions by 31 May. Included in these arrangements will be the initiation of immediate action to obtain security clearance for each of the individuals to be scheduled for transfer to the Central Intelligence Group as of that date.
